Councillors clash over leisure park

BASINGSTOKE'S Labour group has been accused of "frequently making claims without substance" in its opposition to £200million plans to redevelop the town's leisure park in Worting Road.

Borough councillors from the party have raised concerns over possible changes to neighbouring Saunders Field as part of the plans - with the site currently serving as a natural flood plain for the River Loddon.

The water meadow off Thornycroft Roundabout could be redeveloped into an accessible wildlife and ecology park complete with an adjoining lake as part of plans proposed by developer NewRiver Retail.

But Labour group leader Cllr Paul Harvey feels that the field should be left alone and not "interfered with from serving its purpose" as a protective buffer from possible flooding.

By Christian Wilson

The party is also opposed to plans to include a designer shopping outlet village on the site, while they have previously questioned a link between scheme leader Cllr John Izett and company Montague Evans, which is managing the project.

And the Conservative councillor for Burghclere, Highclere and St Mary Bourne has accused Labour of trying to "scare" residents with their concerns.

Cllr Izett said: "I'm concerned that the Labour party is getting itself in a position where it's finding any reason to oppose the leisure park proposals.

"They're frequently trying to sensationalise things and make claims without any substance to scare members of the public.

"Any idea that comes from the Conservatives, or isn't from them, is quickly knocked back.

"This development is so important to the future of Basingstoke - why shouldn't the people of Basingstoke have a state-of-the-art leisure park and top shopping outlet?"

As previously reported in the Observer, a new aquadrome, dual-use ice rink arena, velodrome and children's activity centre are all proposed for the 60-acre site.

And while insisting that the Labour group "were absolutely in favour" of the regeneration of the leisure park, Cllr Harvey was quick to point to the important role taken on by Saunders Field to prevent flooding.

"This isn't about political or personal rivalries, it's about the residents of this town and that means Saunders Field should not be interfered with from serving its purpose," said Cllr Harvey.

"Look where the water went when Bucksland flooded, it's critical that it's protected as a flood field and it would be really dangerous to change that.

"It doesn't matter whether you call it an eco-park or a boating lake, we don't want it to be interfered with at all, so we need to keep it as it is."

Budget set for approval after Government cuts

THE borough council's cabinet is expected to recommend that the authority approves next year's proposed budget for the area next week.

A £1.98 rise in council tax per household is among the changes proposed in the document – which will go before the full council for final sign off on February 25 after next Tuesday's cabinet meeting.

The council has also put aside £1.6million in the budget to be spent on priorities such as preventing homelessness and securing the Basingstoke Festival in the wake of £800,000 cuts in grants from the Government.

Residents were given the opportunity to have their say on the budget, along with the draft Council Plan for 2016 to 2020, as part of a public consultation on the issues last month.

The need to provide further infrastructure was one of the biggest issues raised by the public, with Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council leader Clive Sanders insisting that changes would be "well managed" as the area looks to continue economic growth.

"Our borough is a great place, with 96 per cent of our residents telling us they're happy with where they live," said Cllr Sanders.

"This is because the borough has a history of embracing growth and its benefits.

By Christian Wilson

"We are committed to continuing to provide first class services and facilities and to protecting our most vulnerable residents, while ensuring that future growth is well planned and well managed."

The draft budget is proposing to use £1.2m of the council's reserves to help fund further infrastructure and grants for disabled facilities, street parking improvements and the upgrading of community facilities.

Other changes proposed as part of the council plan would see fines increased by one per cent this year, 1.5 per cent next year and two per cent in 2018/19.

And despite the authority being expected to achieve further savings of £734,000 over the next financial year, portfolio holder for finance and resources Cllr John Izett was optimistic about the future.

He said: "It is necessary to increase council tax for the first time in six years because cuts in the main grant received from the Government amount to nearly one third."

"The outlook is for continuing withdrawal of Government financial support and therefore these financial pressures will not go away."

The leader of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council Clive Sanders is expected to approve the upcoming budget next week

Eat Out, Eat Well

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: The borough council is supporting a new Hampshire-wide scheme that rewards food businesses that provide their customers with healthier choices.

The Eat Out, Eat Well campaign rewards cafes, restaurants and catering companies with either a bronze, silver or gold award based on a scoring system taking into account types of food on offer, cooking methods and meal promotion.

To achieve the free award, businesses will be assessed by the council's environmental health team based on the principles of a healthy balanced diet, such as keeping fat to a minimum and making fruit and vegetables widely available.

Council member for regulatory services and the environment, Hayley Eachus, said: "Many of us will have set ourselves a New Year's resolution to be a little bit healthier, but sticking to it isn't always easy."

"However, being able to make healthy choices when we decide to eat out can really help and for those businesses it's also an opportunity to improve what they offer and demonstrate that they put their customers first."

For more information or to sign up, call the council on 01256 844844 or visit basingstoke.gov.uk/eatwell.

95 new homes

SHERFIELD ON LODDON: The borough council has received a request for a screening opinion for the proposed build of 95 new homes in Sherfield on Loddon.

Up to 38 dwellings would be earmarked for affordable housing as part of the plans for the site on land north of Goddards Lane.

The process will now decide whether the project requires an Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) before a full planning application is submitted to the council later this year.

Teenage girl threatened in Alton alleyway

AN UNKNOWN man threatened a 13-year-old girl during a suspicious incident in Alton on Monday.

The suspect is understood to have smelled of beer and approached the girl as she walked down an alleyway joining Bolle Road and Helens Close at around 8.10am.

He then grabbed her collar and spoke briefly to her, before the teenager, who was not hurt during the incident, managed to escape and run away to a friend's house.

The man has been described as white, aged in his 50s, skinny, and was wearing a black hooded top with the hood pulled up as well as black tracksuit bottoms.

Hampshire Constabulary officers are now investigating the incident, and have appealed to anyone who knows the man involved or who may be able to provide further information to come forward.

DC Alex Hall said: "If you think you saw this man, or you know who it could be, then please call us."

"This type of incident is very rare in the Alton area and we will be increasing patrols so that parents and pupils can speak to us if they have any concerns."

Anyone with information should contact police on 101, quoting 44160025735.

Alternatively, residents can contact Crimestoppers charity on 0800 555 111, where information can be left anonymously.

CF charity receives AWE funding

News Bites

A BASINGSTOKE charity that supports children with Cystic Fibrosis (CF) has been handed a cash boost by the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE).

The nuclear deterrent manufacturer, based at Aldermaston, donated £5,000 to Anna's Challenges – who support affected children from the area at Basingstoke's hospital.

Rachel Marke set up the organisation in 2011 to raise funds to buy essential equipment for young CF patients at the hospital like six-year-old daughter Anna, who was diagnosed with the condition at four weeks.

And the mum of two insisted that AWE's donation would "really make such a difference" to families in the area.

She said: "I was overwhelmed, it is such a fantastic amount and was totally unexpected."

"It will go a long way to helping make a difference to children with cystic fibrosis in our local area and to the CF team at the North Hampshire Hospital."

By Christian Wilson

"With this money we can continue to donate physiotherapy and medical equipment, physio toys, provide outings for the CF Sibling Support Group, offer activity grants and travel grants for hospital visits."

"We are so very grateful to AWE for their generosity and support."

Cystic Fibrosis is a life-threatening genetic condition that affects over two million people in the UK and causes the lungs and digestive system to become clogged with mucus.

AWE staff member Vicky Thomas nominated Anna's Challenges to receive the cash lump sum after the support provided by the organisation to her 10-year-old son, who suffers from CF.

She said: "When my son was diagnosed it was very overwhelming at first, not least because he was put on lots of different medications and his diet was drastically changed."

• Rachel Marke (back middle) and daughter Anna (front) are presented with the cheque from AWE alongside children's ward staff from Basingstoke hospital

"During this huge upheaval questions, no matter how trivial, and they made my family feel like we weren't alone. "Anna's challenge doesn't just focus on the child it helps the whole family understand and come to terms with the illness and how best to live with it."

Fatal car crash

HAMPSHIRE: A man was pronounced dead at the scene of a fatal car crash near Alton last week.

The three-vehicle collision took place on the A31 south-bound carriageway between the Chawton roundabout and Four Marks Village at 6.52pm last Wednesday evening.

Police have since launched an investigation into the incident, and have informed the unknown man's next of kin of his death.

A man and a woman were also taken to hospital by ambulance after suffering minor injuries following the crash.

Officers closed both carriageways for several hours while they conducted their enquiries.

Dentist burglary

BASINGSTOKE: Intruders broke into a Basingstoke dental surgery and tried to steal a safe in a late night burglary last Friday.

Offenders targeted the South Ham Dental Walk-in Centre at St Andrews Centre in Western Way at some point between midnight and 12.45am.

Intruders managed to climb onto the second storey roof of the surgery, which is part of Damira Dental Studios, before then forcing their way inside the building.

Debate over leisure park proposals

• From front page

Brookvale and Kings Furlong councillor Jack Cousens reiterated Cllr Harvey's concerns over the development, and added his fears that any potential development could negatively impact other parts of the borough.

He said: "The possibility of having a boating lake makes me incredibly nervous because the water from the River Loddon has to go somewhere."

"It seems like we're tempting fate by removing the safety net of Saunders Field."

"I would worry about the knock-on effect further down the river if facilities further afield cannot take it."

Cllr Izett refuted any claims that the area would be any more at risk of flooding by any changes however, and pointed out that any decision on whether to create a boating lake was still far off.

He added: "These embryonic proposals have a lot of potential, and we would encourage ideas from residents on ways to improve them."

"Any alterations we would make wouldn't negatively impact flood prevention."

"In fact we believe that it could be used to prevent further flooding around Buckskin."

Second trial underway for Georgina Edmonds murder

A FORMER Basingstoke coffee merchant whose mother was beaten to death with a marble rolling pin has spoken in court about discovering her body.

Georgina Edmonds, 77, was found dead at her home in Kiln Lane, Brambridge, on January 11, 2008 – leading to one of Hampshire's most notorious unsolved murder cases.

Matthew Hamlen, 36, of Camborne Close in Bishopstoke, is currently standing on trial for the murder for a second time, having previously been acquitted.

A six-week trial began last

By Christian Wilson

Tuesday at Winchester Crown Court, with Michael Bowes QC telling the court that the prosecution believed Mrs Edmonds, who was stabbed multiple times, had been tortured for her credit card PIN prior to her death.

Son Harry Edmonds found his mother's body surrounded by "a pool of blood" at her cottage, situated in the grounds of a larger property owned by the family at Kingfisher Lodge, which he visited each Friday.

Mr Edmonds, who ran coffee merchant The Edmonds Group in Festival Place, had to break in through a window to get inside the cottage after finding the doors locked and the lights all switched off – something he labelled "unusual".

"At first I thought she must be asleep so I wasn't overly concerned, but it occurred to me that she might have had a fall," he told the court last Thursday. "I called her phone and could hear it tinkling away from outside without an answer, so I lifted up the sash to my mother's bedroom window and climbed in."

"I made my way to the kitchen and turned on the lights to see her lying face down on the floor surrounded by a pool of blood and a substantial large pink dent on the back of her head."

Mrs Edmonds suffered a fractured skull and several broken ribs during the attack, as well as numerous wounds to her head, abdomen and chest.

The jury also heard how a pair of elasticated trousers that Mrs Edmonds had been wearing at the time had been pulled down by around five inches to expose her pants, although there was no evidence of a sexual assault.

Mr Edmonds added: "I just wish that I'd left work at lunchtime that day, because then I think things might have been different."

"She was a lovely, interesting, friendly, nice and kind person."

Hamlen has pleaded not guilty to the murder.

The trial continues.

Work begins

BASINGSTOKE: Work to redevelop Basingstoke's fire station finally begun last week after almost six years of planning.

The £6million development will see improved living quarters, a training tower and smoke training building accommodated in the new look station in West Ham Close.

Demolition of the current facilities, which have been in use since 1966, began last Monday, with firefighters due to temporarily move to the station's breathing apparatus training centre while the work is carried out.

Work is expected to last for about a year, with Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service setting an opening date deadline of February 2017.

Car stolen

BASINGSTOKE: A car was stolen during a burglary in Kempshott last Wednesday.

Entry was forced to a house in Homesteads Road between 4.15pm and 8pm.

The offenders then stole jewellery from the property as well as the keys to a black Audi R8 parked on the driveway, which was then subsequently taken.

Police are now appealing to anyone who saw anything suspicious on Homesteads Road during that time to call the non-emergency number 101.

More than 200 drivers held in drink-driving crackdown

A TOTAL of 215 people from Hampshire and the Isle of Wight were arrested as part of a police crackdown on drink-driving over Christmas – a nine per cent increase on the year before.

Officers breathalysed 7,606 people during December as part of Hampshire Constabulary and Thames Valley Police's joint campaign 'Where will you end up tonight?'

The drive, named Operation Holly, centred on a hard-hitting theme of potentially ending up in a mortuary through drink-or drug-driving.

Hampshire Constabulary Road Safety Sergeant Rob Heard said: "This rise in arrests for drink and drug-driving reflects our relentless rigorous attitude to stopping reckless deadly behaviour on our roads."

"Too many motorists continue to believe foolishly that it's acceptable to drive under the influence when the reality is that it's not worth the risk."

"Recently improved methods of detecting drug-drivers are beginning to take effect as shown by these figures."

"Always remember the potentially fatal consequences for others travelling as passengers or pedestrians."

Transgender people 'treated appallingly'

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller has labelled the treatment of the transgender community in the UK as "appalling" following the release of a report on the issue.

The Government's women and equalities committee has accused the NHS of "letting down" 'trans people' in its Transgender Equality study.

Among the changes proposed is to lower the age at which people can apply for gender recognition from 18 to 16 – with last Thursday's report claiming there was a 25 per cent increase in referrals to clinics annually.

At a time when the subject has become very much in the public eye due to its link to celebrities such as Caitlyn Jenner, committee chair Mrs Miller called for more to be done to help transgender people.

She said: "The committee received evidence from more than 250 organisations and individuals revealing a catalogue of appalling legal and public service failures."

"The media coverage of Caitlyn Jenner was, of course, helpful in raising awareness and putting trans people on the world stage and Eddie Redmayne's new film

By Christian Wilson

The Danish Girl has done even more to boost this.

"But the day-to-day realities of life for trans people in Britain are very different from that glitz and glamour in Hollywood."

More than 30 recommendations to improve the lives of the transgender community have been put forward, including having a non-gendered category on passports and replacing the "outdated" term transsexual with the term "gender identity".

Mrs Miller added: "The main challenge of our report is to help ensure our laws and services do not lag behind the real and positive changes in public opinion."

"The scale of legal and public service failure is clear when you consider the shocking statistic that half of all young trans people have attempted suicide."

She continued: "We hope our recommendations will encourage the change that is needed and we urge the Government to respond swiftly, with a cross-part strategy in six months' time, so trans people have access to the protections and public services they need – and that the rest of us take for granted."

• Basingstoke MP Maria Miller has labelled the treatment of the transgender community as 'appalling'

Local plan hitch

HART: A consultation outlining Hart District Council's local plan has been stopped early after errors were found.

It had been created to examine the need to build 2,500 new homes in the area by 2032, and prepare for the possibility of constructing a further 500 to cover shortfalls in Rushmoor and Surrey Heath.

Council leader Stephen Parker said: "I apologise to the residents and businesses of Hart for the inconvenience caused and I would like to reassure the public that by working with my colleagues to rectify the issues discovered, we will create a robust consultation going forward."

Big band event

BASINGSTOKE: A night of jazz and big band classics is due to take place at The Anvil in March as part of the mayor Cllr Anne Court's charity appeal.

The 18-piece Clive Fortune Big Band and soul singer Natasha Watts will perform at the concert on March 8, which will raise money for Ark Cancer Centre, Inspecro and Basingstoke Multicultural Forum.

The event will begin at 7.30pm, with tickets costing £15, including a £1 booking fee.

Work to start

BASINGSTOKE: Major refurbishment to modernise and improve the accessibility Basingstoke Aquadrome's changing village is due to commence on Monday, February 12.

The improvements, which it is hoped will be completed by mid-March, include new cubicles, lockers and a children's buggy parking facility.

Basingstoke and Deane Community Leisure Trust contract manager Alan Elliott said: "The trust aims to provide facilities that encourage active and healthy lifestyles and this will help us to achieve that."

The Aquadrome will be open as normal during the work.

Boos as homes plan is narrowly backed

BOOS rang out at a borough council meeting last week after a planning application to build 34 houses in Ashford Hill was controversially approved.

Chairman of the authority's development control committee Cllr Donald Sherlock used his casting vote to give the development the go-ahead after voting was tied.

Just seconds earlier, Cllr Sherlock had voted against the scheme, which falls in his Kingsclere ward.

The plans for the site at the junction of Little Knowl Hill and Ashford Hill Road also include a 31-space car park and a sewerage treatment plant.

Cllr Sherlock summed up: "On the grounds that there are no planning reasons for turning it down, I think I will use my decisive casting vote to vote in favour of approval."

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council received 105 letters of objection from residents to the proposals prior to last Wednesday night's meeting.

Among the issues that drew concern from councillors were the proposed site's lack of footway access and the use of the sewerage treatment plant.

By Christian Wilson

Fellow Kingsclere councillor Cathy Osselton argued that the development would "cause harm" to Ashford Hill.

She said: "This is proven on many counts not to be a sustainable site and there is clear risk of surface flooding on the site."

"Why should the people of Ashford Hill have this obviously unsustainable site imposed on them because of our borough's housing shortage?"

Bramley and Sherfield Cllr Chris Tomblin said: "I'm concerned about whether such a large development not on mains drainage is not going to be without its problems going forward."

Baughurst and Tadley North councillor Michael Bound said: "I do have concerns about the drainage, but I'm not a technician, so I have to take the word of the people who will be making that decision that it works."

"But my inclination is that we don't really have any big reason to turn down the application."

Council officers had recommended that the plans for 16 five-bed, two four-bed, 10 three-bed and seven two-bed homes be approved.

• Kingsclere councillor Cathy Osselton labelled the site in Ashford Hill as "obviously unsustainable" during last week's meeting

Borough set to honour the victims of Holocaust

VICTIMS of the Holocaust and other acts of genocide are to be remembered at a ceremony next Wednesday.

Basingstoke and Deane's mayor will mark UK Holocaust Memorial Day by laying a wreath at the borough council's war memorial in London Road.

The event will begin at 10am when a bugler will mark the start of two minutes' silence, before a member of mayor Cllr Anne Court's chaplaincy says a few words.

Cllr Court said: "I hope that many borough residents will join me to remember the millions of people who have been murdered or whose lives have been changed beyond recognition during the Holocaust and in subsequent genocides."

Holocaust Memorial Day has been commemorated worldwide since 2000, marking the anniversary in 1945 of the liberation of the Nazi death camp Auschwitz-Birkenau.

Borough council chief executive Mel Barrett will also lay a wreath at the ceremony.

Members of the public are welcome to attend to pay their respects.

For more information, call the council on 01256 844844 or go to basingstoke.gov.uk/mayor.

News Bites

Scout appeal

OAKLEY: Residents are being urged to help keep Oakley Scout Troop open by attending a crisis meeting next Wednesday.

A lack of volunteers means that the Scouting group could have to close after Easter.

The meeting starts at 7.45pm at the Scout and Guide Centre in St John's Piece.

Charity walk

NORTH HAMPSHIRE: Countryside charity Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE) Hampshire is accepting donations for its sponsored walk.

Two circular sponsored walks of four and seven miles respectively will take place from Cliddesden Village Hall on April 24.

Registration costs £5, but residents unable to get involved can also donate at justgiving.com/cprewalk.

Boxing night

CINEHAM: The Rotary Club of Basingstoke Deane's International Boxing Tournament will return to the Hampshire Court Hotel in Chineham on March 4.

Seven bouts will take place at the black-tie event.

Reigning world heavyweight champion Tyson Fury is among previous boxers to have taken part, appearing in 2007.

Making Basingstoke 'hostile' for burglars

SIXTY volunteer police cadets braved the cold to offer Basingstoke residents crime prevention advice last Thursday evening.

They went door to door to speak to burglary victims with the Basingstoke Neighbourhood Policing Team as part of a reassurance operation.

They also joined police community support officers and borough council community safety patrol officers in taking part in a crime prevention roadshow at Basingstoke railway station as part of Operation Cloak.

Hampshire police and crime commissioner (PCC) Simon Hayes and Hampshire Constabulary Detective Superintendent Darren Rawlings were among those in attendance during the operation.

Mr Hayes said: "I was very pleased to go to Basingstoke and meet the cadets, special constables and partners involved in Operation Cloak."

"They engaged with and reassured the community, while helping to reduce crime in Basingstoke."

The force's Volunteer Police Cadets scheme is for young people aged 13 to 17 and aims to give them the chance to meet new people, develop leadership skills and take part in policing and community engagement events.

While cadets have been involved in offering this advice before, last week's operation was the first to be conducted on this scale in the area.

Detective Chief Inspector

Scott Clarke, from the Northern Investigations Team, said: "Burglary is a force priority and while burglary rates in Basingstoke are low, Hampshire Constabulary is committed to making sure people feel safe in their homes."

"On a cold night, the cadets acted in a sensible and professional manner and were well-received."

"This operation is part of our commitment to making sure Basingstoke is a hostile place for burglars."

Business praised by town's MP

MARIA Miller met up with some of Basingstoke's best up and coming entrepreneurs earlier this month.

Business owners from SETSquared's Entrepreneurship Training Programme discussed their work with the Basingstoke MP at the business partnership's hub in Basing View on Friday, January 8.

The programme was highly commended by the Government at the Entprising Britain Awards in November, with Mrs Miller taking the opportunity to congratulate them.

She said: "I was glad to meet some of the entrepreneurs based at the SETSquared hub here in Basingstoke and hear about this important business support programme."

"I look forward to hearing about their future successes."

SETSquared is a long-standing partnership between the universities of Bath, Bristol, Exeter and Surrey, and has been ranked the top university business incubator in the world by the University Business Incubator Index Global.

Mrs Miller added: "Basingstoke is one of the top-10 centres of employment in the south east and has a particular strength in high-tech industries."

"So it makes perfect sense for SETSquared to have located this important centre here at Basing View."

Nanny Sue takes a bite out of cancer

WHEN it comes to bad luck you would be hard pressed to find a streak of misfortune quite like the one experienced by Sue Highfield.

The Basingstoke grandmother-of-seven received the news that everyone dreads just before Christmas 2014 when she was told that she had breast cancer for a second time.

To make matters worse, Sue received the diagnosis having been made redundant from her job of 15 years as a tax adviser.

By Christian Wilson

But fast-forward to the present day and the future is looking much brighter for the 59-year-old, with her illness behind her, an eighth grandchild on the way and her new café business improving every day.

Sue opened Nanny Sue's Kitchen at Oakridge Hall for All with friend Tricia Murray, of Bucksdown, in November, and has not looked back since – vowing to carry on her positivity into the new year.

She said: "Me and Tricia thought we'd give it a whirl and business was very slow at first, but gradually it has got better and better."

better – it was gutting."

"We're never going to be millionaires out of this but it's absolutely wonderful, and I meet someone new every day."

She continued: "When I was diagnosed in 2006, it was around Christmas time too, which was devastating because you start to think that it might be your last one."

"But now I'm fighting fit and loving life again."

For more information on the café, visit facebook.com/nannysueskitchen.

Nicola to take on county's finest in beauty pageant

MISS Basingstoke will be hoping to go one step further later this year when she takes on other beauties from across the county.

Nicola Ascroft, of Popley, will be competing for the title of Miss Hampshire on March 12 at Alton House Hotel, having placed as first runner-up in last year's competition.

The 22-year-old also won the Charity Queen and Talent Queen categories at the ceremony to make it through to the semi-final of Miss England 2015 – a feat Nicola is hoping to repeat.

She said: "I feel this year there is a lot higher expectation of myself to do well in the competition."

"For the last 10 months of my reign, I feel I have not only accomplished a lot and grown as a person; I have been able to use my title to the best of its ability."

Miss Hampshire competitors will be judged on categories ranging from talent, looks, personality and social media popularity, with the winner set to go through to the Miss England Grand Finals later this year.

Nicola has raised thousands of pounds and awareness for local charities Beauty with a Purpose, Naomi House, Breathe With Me Strawfie and Anna's Challenges.

The Basingstoke beauty said: "I would really love to win Miss Hampshire this year, to be able to represent my county as well as my town – spreading my charity work as far as I can."

Married couples invited to event celebrating special day

THE borough's mayor is inviting couples from Basingstoke and Deane celebrating special anniversaries this year to a reception.

Cllr Anne Court will hold the event at the borough council's civic offices in London Road from 3pm on April 13.

The popular annual event is set to honour married couples whose golden or diamond anniversary date falls between May 14 last year and May 12 this year.

And the mayor has called on eligible residents to get in touch with the council to receive an official invitation so that they can celebrate the day in style.

Cllr Court said: "Golden and diamond anniversaries are very special milestones and it is an honour and privilege to be able to join in the celebrations with so many couples from around the borough."

"I am appealing to couples, or their relatives or friends, to make sure they let us know so that they get an invitation to come in and join us."

Anyone wishing to attend should call Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's contact centre on 01256 844844 and leave their contact details by March 21.

WIN tickets to see Mrs Henderson Presents

DON'T miss MRS HENDERSON PRESENTS, the hilarious, brand-new, five-star musical based on the much loved film that starred Dame Judi Dench and Bob Hoskins, as it makes its West End debut in February 2016 having left critics in raptures at the Theatre Royal Bath.

It's London, 1937, and recently widowed eccentric, Laura Henderson, is looking for a way of spending her time and money. After acquiring and renovating the Windmill Theatre, she hires feisty impresario Vivian Van Damm to present a bill of non-stop variety acts. But as war looms something more is required to boost morale and box office... Mrs Henderson comes up with the idea of The Windmill Girls - glamorous young women posing as nude statues - and audiences flock!

With book and direction by the Tony Award-winning Terry Johnson (La Cage Aux Folles), choreography by Andrew Wright (Singin' in the Rain, Guys and Dolls), lyrics by the multi-

Ed hits the road with a fresh show

COMEDIAN Ed Byrne has a host of new gags for his new show 'Outside, Looking In, which comes to The Anvil on Thursday, January 28.

"I didn't make a conscious effort to write a more personal show, but that was what was coming out when I started writing it," Ed said.

"People come to see me for a laugh and I would like to think they go away thinking it is quite heart-warming.

"A lot of comics may talk about the same stuff, but what makes it mine is that what I'm saying is what I genuinely think on this subject, and I try to make it as funny as I can."

When studying horticulture at the University of Strathclyde, Ed became interested in the comedy clubs in and around the town before starting his own event 'The Comedy Cellar' in the basement of a pub.

As his club grew, Ed dropped out of university during his second year to move to London to focus on a career in entertainment.

His stand-up was starting to attract large numbers to many of his early shows, and in 1998 he was nominated for the Perrier Comedy Award at the Edinburgh Fringe.

And with numerous tours and appearances on TV shows such as 'Have I Got News For You' and 'Mock the Week', Ed is a familiar face on the UK comedy circuit.

But despite that, he made it clear that he doesn't mention his children as much in his shows as he did before.

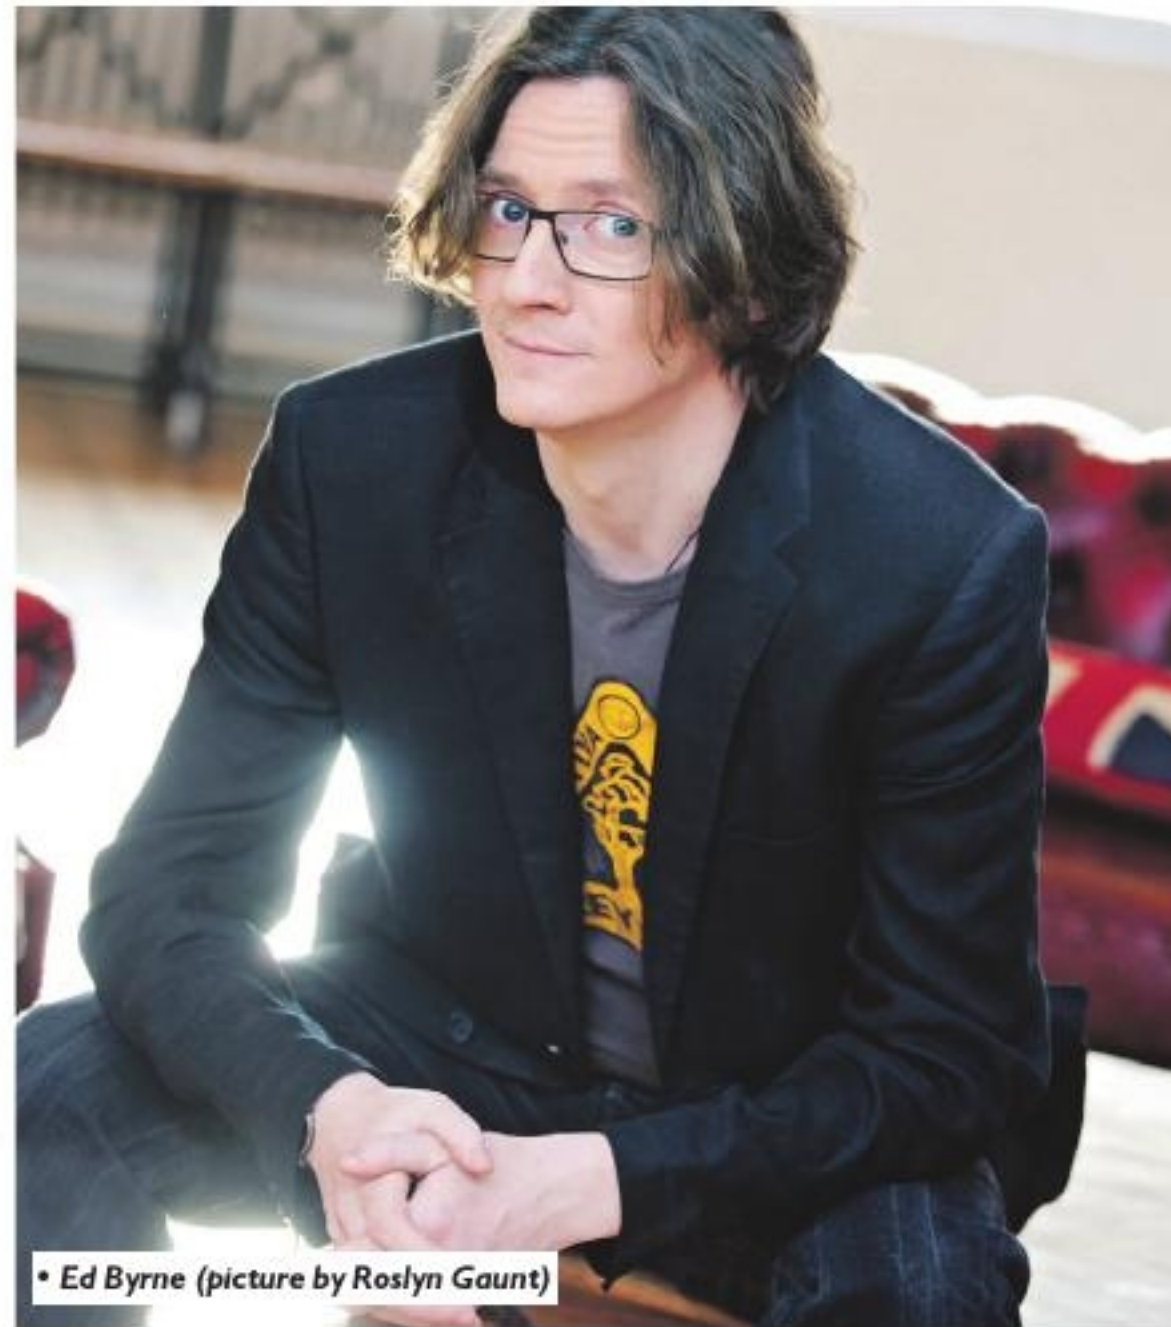

"I'm aware that they haven't given me permission to talk about them and that there will come a point when I can't," the 43-year-old said.

"John Bishop has stopped talking about his children on stage because people know who they are.

"I talk about them in pretty abstract terms, because what I'm discussing is the act of parenting, and you can't talk about that without mentioning them.

"And there isn't anything in this show that would make them at a later date say 'I don't like this'."

It starts at 8pm.

Conductor looks forward to concert

FOLLOWING their popular shows at The Anvil over the last 12 months, the Philharmonia Orchestra returns to the Churchill Way venue on Saturday, January 23.

Conducted by John Wilson - one of the most well-known conductors in the country - the orchestra will play well-known pieces of music by the likes of Vaughan Williams and Finzi.

"I have had the pleasure of working with the Philharmonia Orchestra for a number of years now but this will be the first time in Basingstoke, and I am looking forward to conducting in the renowned acoustic at The Anvil," said conductor John.

"A treat awaits audiences on January 23."

After developing a passion for music at a young age, John started to conduct orchestras when he was studying for his A-levels.

The orchestra's concert at The Anvil starts at 7.45pm, and tickets cost from £10 to £39.

Spoof whodunnit is coming to theatre

PETER Gordon's spoof murder-mystery thriller 'Secondary Cause of Death' is coming to The Haymarket theatre in Basingstoke from Wednesday, January 27, to Saturday, January 30.

Set in the library of a country manor house in 1939, Inspector Pratt arrives at Bagshot House with some grim news for Colonel Craddock.

It sees the start of his worst possible nightmare, posing a number of questions: Who is the strange Polish Count? Is Henrietta really an army captain? How does the eccentric actor Longfellow fit into the equation?

Pratt's visit to the mansion becomes increasingly chaotic as the bodies begin to pile up.

Actor Jeffrey Holland told the Observer: "This is the second in a trilogy of plays starring the inept Inspector Pratt and it takes the mick out of all the stereotypes in any Agatha Christie-type thriller."

"In the play, I play two parts which are a retired colonel and my own double as an over-the-top actor laddie!"

By James Richings

Performed by the Talking Scarlett Theatre Company, the play - which also stars Judy Buxton, David Callister, David Janson, Michelle Morris, Liz Garland, Megan Terry and Polly Smith - is on a short tour.

The six-and-a-half week run will see the nine actors perform in various places including Poole and Stevenage, with the four-day stay in Basingstoke being the first stop on the run.

And despite the play being aimed at an older audience, Jeffrey hoped that the production would attract some younger people.

"You can expect a lot of laughs and a few surprises," he said. "It is very important for the younger generation to experience live theatre, as they may never get the chance with all the social media and gadgets at their disposal."

"People need to make an effort to take their kids to a live play."

Jeffrey added: "I was at The Haymarket twice last year, first with 'The Ghost Train' and later with my one man play '...And this is my friend Mr Laurel', and I get great satisfaction when I see an audience appreciate my work."

Tickets for the six shows cost from £11 to £20.

Career change proved winner

• Rod Picott

FROM New Hampshire USA to Hampshire UK, American-born musician Rod Picott will be appearing at The Forge on Wednesday, January 27.

The 52-year-old singer-songwriter, known for his country, Americana and folk sounds, visits the Churchill Way venue as part of a Europe-wide tour and will be performing hits from his latest album 'Fortune', released last year.

"I wanted to make an album that was as raw and immediate as possible," Rod told the Observer.

"We created an atmosphere in the studio where we were capturing complete performances rather than trying to recreate how a performance sounds."

Since starting his music career in 2001, the musician has released 10 albums.

However, things could have been so different for Rod, who used to work in construction before moving to music.

"I threw my work boots out the window of the car one day," he said.

"I knew I had to take a chance on myself at some point. That was the day."

But with the chance to get to see the world by following one of his passions, it was an opportunity that Rod was not going to pass up.

"A songwriter tells people's stories for the audience," he said. "Really, this is how art works."

"If you've done your job as an artist, the audience sees something that they already know from a new or different angle and that tells a bigger story, a story that's wider and with more depth than how they viewed that particular subject before."

"Exposition is what it's all about. And exposition leads to empathy and understanding."

Tickets cost £15 or £13 for under-16s, full-time students and over-65s.

The concert starts at 7.45pm.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

LES MISERABLES
RARE Productions, the UK's largest youth musical theatre production company, is delighted to be launching its newest group in Newbury with a production of Les Misérables: Schools Edition. This epic story recounts the struggle against adversity in 19th century France. Imprisoned for stealing a loaf of bread, petty thief Jean Valjean is released from his 19-year term and not only becomes an honest man, but the mayor of a prosperous town and a loving adoptive father - violating his parole in the process. The relentless Inspector Javert, who makes a decent life for Valjean impossible, consequently pursues him. Only years later, after Valjean proves his mettle during a bloody student uprising and saves the life of a young man hopelessly in love with Valjean's adopted daughter, does the ex-convict finally feel fully redeemed.

The Anvil, Basingstoke
PHILHARMONIA ORCHESTRA

Vaughan Williams' overture is one of his very best short pieces, beginning by evoking the buzzing of the insects of the title. Finzi's delightful concerto is his most well-known orchestral piece and showcases many sides of the clarinet's character, played tonight by the orchestra's Principal Clarinet. The Sea Symphony is an epic and imaginative setting of poems by Walt Whitman, though keeping the traditional four movements of symphonic form. The musical themes recur in various forms throughout the work. Its success established Vaughan Williams as the foremost British composer of his generation.

JOHANN STRAUSS GALA
The Johann Strauss Gala has entertained audiences for over 40 years with its captivating combination of much-loved music, delightful dancing and dash of comedy. Dressed in exquisite costumes of the period, the orchestra return with a brand new show with irrepressible showman Rainer Hersch. Together they take you on a light-hearted journey filled with some of the most romantic waltzes and liveliest polkas ever composed.

Taking care of your motor

Fastfit Service Centre is located at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough time, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it. It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it! He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing! Cheers, Clive Baldwin

Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further. Hopkins source: Yell

Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.

I wanted something activated on my car that had not been done at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job. I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price! These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone! Chris H

Designed for needs of the commuter

ITALIAN car manufacturer Fiat has announced that the brand new Fiat 500 will join the Fiat Panda as the only two diesel-powered vehicles available in the city-car segment, in the UK.

Designed to suit the commuter's needs when driving on long journeys between congested destinations, the Fiat 500 has become one of the most popular cars on the British roads.

And with brand new features within the car, motorists will now have new gadgets to experiment with when going on their travels.

With a Start & Stop system, rapid engine warm-up, a variable oil pump displacement and smart alternator, the car has been designed to make sure that the driver's journey is efficient.

Producing 95bhp, the all-new car

By James Richings

has kept its sophistication from the previous 500, as the second-generation MultiJet car has also got a geometry turbo charger.

This performance ensures drivers that the Fiat 500 is responsive in all gears as the car can reach 62mph from a standstill in just 10.7 seconds, with a top speed of 112mph.

The Fiat also greatly reduces running costs and has vastly improved its eco-friendliness.

The Fiat has now got an official combined cycle fuel economy figure of 83.1mpg and CO2 emissions of just 89g/km.

Prices for the Fiat 500 start at £14,166 OTR for the hardtop 500 Pop Star, or £16,815 for the convertible 500C.

Sales Administrator

£15,000 pa + OTE Commission

We are looking for a full time administrator to prepare copy for publication for our newspapers at our offices in Didcot.

You will need to be computer literate, a team player with good communication skills and have a sense of urgency about you.

No experience is required as training will be given and this role could develop into that of an Account Manager dealing with and earning commission from your own customer base.

A great opportunity for someone wishing to enter the media business.
Please call Julian Richings for an informal discussion on 01235 516926.

New skipper

CRICKET: Mitch Stokes will return to captain Basingstoke and North Hants this summer in the Southern Premier League.

The all-rounder was club skipper at May's Bounty between 2007 and 2008 during the club's spell in the Thames Valley League.

Stokes will take over from Chris Froud as club captain, with the opening batsman enjoying a successful recent spell as skipper, leading the Bountymen to the Division Two title in 2014 and third place in Division One last summer.

Home loss

RUGBY: Basingstoke RFC were thrashed in their first home match of the year on Saturday to take the club one game closer to a third successive relegation.

Effingham and Leatherhead beat 'Stoke 33-0 at Down Grange to leave Gareth Hatherley-Hurford's side still without a point in 13 matches in London 2 South West.

Late return

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies will look to finally get their 2016 up and running this Sunday when they line up against Southampton Saints Ladies in the Hampshire FA Women's Cup.

The club hasn't played at all since their comprehensive 7-0 win over Woodley United in the Southern Region Women's Football League (SRWFL) Premier Division on December 13.

Since then Basingstoke have seen league matches against Newbury and Milton Keynes City postponed.

Winning start

HOCKEY: Basingstoke Hockey Club men's 1sts returned to action for the first time in the New Year on Saturday.

Dave Stones, Dan Bowden and Grant Rouse each found the net as 'Stoke overcame Barnes' 1sts 3-1 to maintain second spot in Hampshire Surrey 1.

Next up for Basingstoke is a trip to Fareham on Saturday.

Fans accused of "letting down" club following crowd troubles

BASINGSTOKE Bison have confirmed that they have launched an investigation into crowd trouble at the end of Saturday's match with Sheffield Steeldogs.

A total of 142 minutes of penalties were dished out on the ice at the conclusion of the fiery encounter - with trouble then spilling over into the stands at the Basingstoke Arena.

And Herd officials have now warned Bison supporters that no future troubles will be tolerated.

They also accused some fans of "letting down" the club by using foul and abusive language.

A club statement read: "Following the incidents at the end of Saturday's game, Basingstoke Arena staff have begun a series of investigations, with a particular focus on the behaviour of supporters."

"Overall, we believe that Bison offers the best night's entertainment in the town, encouraging a family friendly atmosphere, as shown by the big crowd who were in attendance at Saturday's game."

"We are, however, very disappointed in a small minority of our supporters who let down both their club and the sport and are determined that this will become an isolated incident."

"We will be making no further comments on the matter but rest assured we will be dealing with the individuals concerned in an appropriate manner."

ENGLISH Premier League (EPL) leaders Basingstoke Bison had a few days to forget as they suffered their worst weekend of the season.

The Herd were handed just their second home defeat this term in an ill tempered 2-1 loss to Sheffield Steeldogs at Planet Ice on Saturday.

And the Stampede were still feeling the after effects of that shock result 24 hours later as they were humbled 5-1 at reigning champions Telford Tigers.

The main talking point of the weekend took place after the final buzzer at the Basingstoke Arena however as fights broke out all over the ice - with a total of 142 minutes in penalties handed out.

For all of the drama at the end, all of the other main talking points against Sheffield took place in the opening period as three goals were scored.

set up by Lubomir Korhon to hand the visitors the lead.

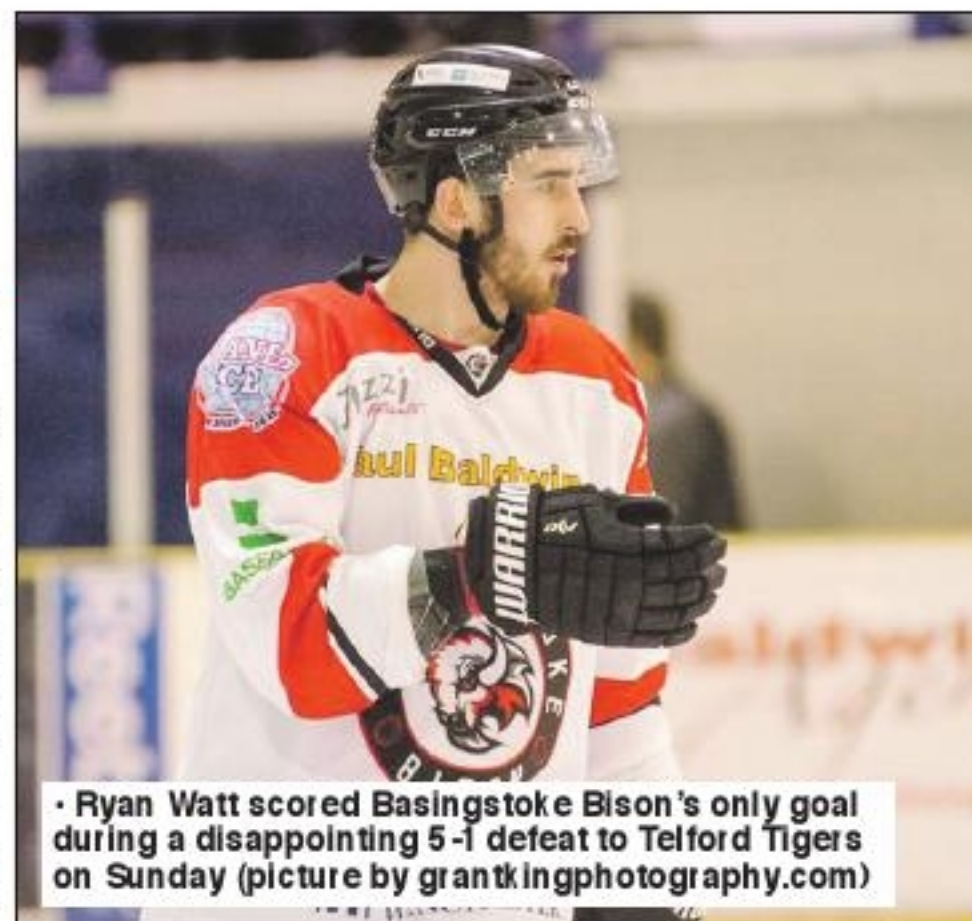

And Andrew Hirst made it 2-0 just under three minutes later to silence the home crowd as the Steeldogs threatened to run riot.

Some great play by Joe Greener handed Bison a reprieve and helped stem the tide 25 seconds from the first buzzer however, with the forward finding Ciaran Long at the back post to score.

But despite peppering Dalibor Sedlar's goal thereafter, Basingstoke were unable to claim an equaliser to take the match into overtime, with tensions then boiling over at the end after Lee Haywood cross checked Greener.

Greener, Dan Weller-Evans, Mirsoslav Vantroba and Declan Balmer all received four-minute penalties for fighting as the benches emptied, with crowd trouble also taking place as a result.

But director of hockey Doug

Sheppard will have been disappointed with his side's response in Shropshire the following night as Telford's Sam Zajac and Richard Plant found the net on 14:56 and 15:24 respectively to give the hosts a first period lead.

The Herd responded well after the buzzer to pull one back through Ryan Watt on 24:26, before Plant struck again to re-establish a two goal cushion.

And the Tigers didn't give Basingstoke a sniff after that, as Joe Miller and Peter Szabo both fired between the pipes before the end of the second period to make it 5-1.

Bison were due to face fierce rivals Guildford Flames at Planet Ice last night after the Observer went to press in the first leg of their EPL Cup semi-final clash.

Town boss praises Brown's character

BASINGSTOKE Town boss Michael Gilkes has insisted that Jamie Brown "will be back stronger than ever" after he suffered a serious looking knee injury on Saturday.

The midfielder only made his long-awaited return from a back injury in December's clash with St Albans - sparking a run of one defeat in five in the process.

But a robust challenge from Mitch Brundle during the weekend's 2-0 win over Hemel Hempstead Town resulted in Brown being stretched off the field and facing another long spell on the sidelines.

Gilkes said: "We have no idea how bad the injury is at this stage until he's had a scan."

"He has come back after a long time out and has had a big impact, there's no doubt about it, so it's really disappointing."

"But he's got a fantastic character and I have no doubt he'll be back as strong as ever."

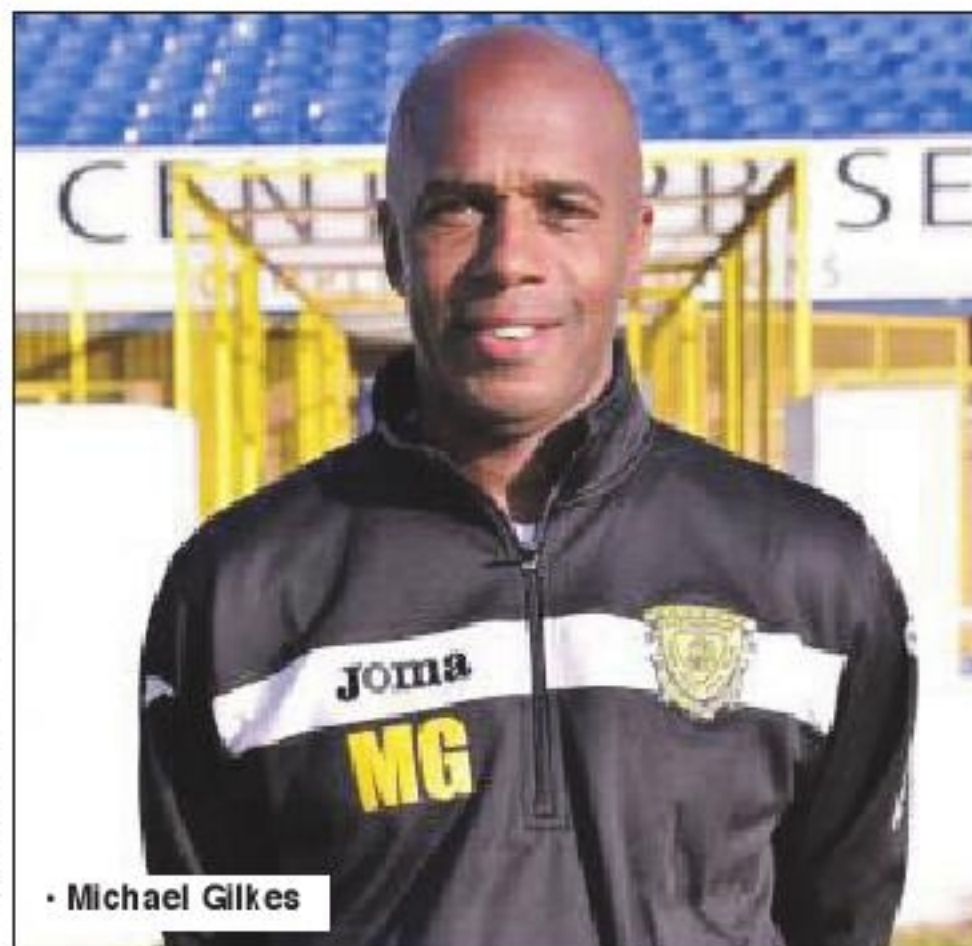

Hemel's defeat at the Camrose was their first on the road all season, and just the Dragons' fifth league win this campaign.

But despite the victory, Gilkes felt his side didn't play as well as they have in other matches this campaign that have seen them fail to claim anything.

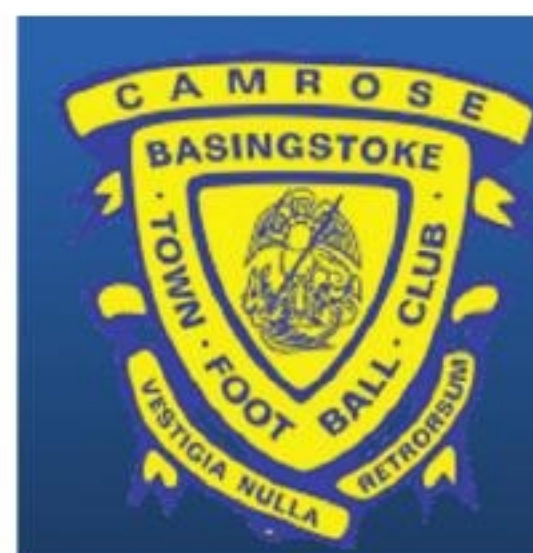

He added: "The most important thing is the win, but to keep a clean sheet as well is great."

"We were professional from start to finish, and could arguably have scored a few more to make it a lot more comfortable."

"In theory, it is great to go on a run like we have recently, but we are genuinely just taking it one game at a time at the moment."

ON FIRE TOWN CLINCH THIRD WIN IN A ROW

BASINGSTOKE Town moved off the bottom of the National League South on Saturday after securing their third league win on the bounce.

Second half goals from Chris Flood and Louie Soares helped the Dragons seal a 2-0 win over Hemel Hempstead Town to move above Havant and Waterlooville.

The Tudors arrived at the Camrose unbeaten away from home all season, but were made to pay for Nikolay Todorov's straight red card 20 minutes from time as the hosts clinched the points.

Town boss Michael Gilkes elected to make three changes to his side from the previous week's win at Eastbourne Borough for the visit of ninth-placed Hemel – with new signing Jack Deaman slotting in at the back.

After scoring twice in an incredible final three minutes to seal the win at Eastbourne, it was no surprise that Manny Williams kept his place in the starting 11, despite the arrival of striker Reece Connolly on Friday.

And the former Sierra Leone international forced the first save of the match from Jamie Butler just seconds after the first whistle after being played in by Jamie Brown.

Luke Thomas then whistled an effort inches over Town stopper Aaron Howe's crossbar on the 10-minute mark in a scrappy start to the match.

The main talking point of the half came 15 minutes before the break however, as Brown had to be stretchered off with a serious looking knee injury following a bad tackle from Mitch Brundle, with Louie Soares coming onto the field to replace the unlucky midfielder.

Following a dull opening 45 minutes, the game came to life five minutes after the break as top scorer Flood stole in at the back post to head home Tom Bird's fine cross and make it 1-0 to Town.

Williams and Flood then both came within inches of making it two for Basingstoke as the hosts built up a head of steam.

Town were handed a massive boost in the 70th minute as a moment of madness from Todorov saw him given his marching orders, after striking Bird around the face without any provocation.

And the Dragons didn't wait around to make their advantage count as just two minutes later Soares found the net with a curling effort from the edge of the box to make it two.

A dangerous cross from Williams then nearly forced an own goal seconds later, before the striker saw a shot cleared off the line after Butler produced an outstanding double save to deny Glen Southam and Soares in the 79th minute.

There was still enough time for the stopper to deny Flood with another fine block after that, but it wasn't to matter as Basingstoke comfortably saw the game out.

Town will have a great chance to make it four league wins in a row on Saturday when they travel to Havant and Waterlooville for a crucial six-pointer.
